SUNDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 18, 1857.

Port of Memphis.

LATEST NEWS BY TELEGRAPH

TO ASSOCIATED PRESS OF MEMPHIS

RIVER TRADE.
The weather was clear and warm yesterday. The river continues to approach that stage of flood which it reached on Saturday evening. Freight arrangements were pretty yesterday. In fact, not much change in price.

The steamer Belleisle was the only regular packet that moved at our wharf yesterday; she was from Cincinnati; and had a very heavy load of freight, and crowds of passengers. She stopped at the New Orleans, and for the Queen City, at 10 o'clock last night.

The steamer Reddy will be at the wharf today, from St. Louis, and leave for the shore, prior to tomorrow. Every one bound upstream should procure a berth ashore, as she is now and has every necessity that is needed to make passengers by her comfortable and convenient.
